According to California Code of Regulations, a pro rata refund pursuant to section 94919(c) or 94920(d) or 94927 of the Code shall be no less than the total amount owed by the student for the portion of the educational program provided subtracted from the amount paid by the student: (1) The amount owed equals the daily charge for the program (total institutional charge, divided by the number of days in the program), multiplied by the number of days student attended, or was scheduled to attend, prior to withdrawal. For instance, the daily charge of the program tuition fee is $42.71 ($299.00 a week times 10 weeks = $2990.00 divided by 70 days). If a student has paid $2990.00 for 10 weeks (70 days), and he/she only attended classes for one week, total refund will be $2691.00, which is calculated from $2990.00 (the total amount the student has paid) - $299.00 ($42.71 daily charge, multiply by 7 days, rounded up to the nearest dollar).
